

7 WAYS TO GET STUDENTS ACTIVE IN CAREER CRUISING

Ensure all of your students have access to the powerful resources available through Career Cruising. Here are seven ways to raise student awareness about Career Cruising at your school.

1. Remind students about Career Cruising and how to log in during the morning announcements.
2. Encourage teachers to list login details in classrooms directing students to Career Cruising to review or retake assessments, matching them with college and career options.
3. Include Career Cruising mini-posters around the school (main office, guidance office, student bulletin boards, in the cafeteria, etc.).
4. Include a shortcut to Career Cruising on the desktop of all school computers.
5. Set-up a computer logged into Career Cruising for orientation and parents' nights.
6. Include details about Career Cruising availability in newsletters sent home with students.
7. Offer Career Cruising presentations at staff meetings, and make login information readily available in teacher's lounges and staff meeting rooms.
